Revision History

Date	Description of Change
July 2015	Addition of Internal Audit Practitioner and Qualification in Internal Audit Leadership (QIAL). Change to CFSA CPE requirement that all CPE hours earned for the CFSA be related to financial services effective with the 2016 CPE reporting year. (Previous requirement was 25% of hour earned had to be related to financial services.)

Purpose

This document contains the mandatory Continuing Professional Education (CPE) requirements for Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®), Internal Audit Practitioner, Certification in Control Self-Assessment® (CCSA®), Certified Government Auditing Professional® (CGAP®), Certified Financial Services Auditor® (CFSA®), and Certification in Risk Management Assurance® (CRMA®) designations.

This document also contains the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) requirements for the Qualification in Internal Auditing Leadership® (QIAL®).

Finally, this document specifies the method of reporting by certified individuals (certificants) who wish to keep their certifications and/or designations in good standing.

For further information on The IIA's certification programs, please visit our Certification Web Page.

Certified Professionals Responsibilities:

- To maintain their knowledge and skills.
- To update their knowledge and skills related to improvements and current developments in internal auditing standards, procedures, and techniques or in their specialization area (government auditing, financial services, control self-assessment, or risk management assurance).

Requirements Regarding IIA International Standards

- 1) To encourage understanding of The IIA's International Standards, the Professional Certification Board (PCB) requires that certification holders incorporate review of The IIA's International Standards as part of their annual CPE program.
- 2) Certificants must review or receive training on The IIA's International Standards during the CPE reporting period.
- 3) In addition to reviewing the Standards, The IIA encourages individuals to review the Practice Advisories (accessible with an IIA member password) and other sections of The IIA's Professional Practices Framework.
- 4) Certified individuals will be asked to certify their conformance to the Code of Ethics and the International Standards as part of the annual CPE report submission to The IIA.

CPE & CPD Reporting Requirements

Individuals that hold a certified status in any of the global programs are required to self-certify to the completion of the required continuing education and/or professional development hours. It is the certified individual's responsibility to assure that the CPE and/or CPD hours claimed conform to the guidelines established by The IIA's Professional Certification Board. CPE and CPD reporting forms are submitted by certified individuals on an annual basis and serve as signed statements that all applicable CPE and/or CPD requirements have been met.

Notifications will be sent to all certificants reminding them to report CPE and/or CPD each year. Individuals may submit reporting forms in CCMS (Certifications Candidate Management System) or through their local Institute as appropriate. Reporting for the year must be completed by December 31 each year. The IIA will issue an acknowledgment of compliance to each candidate meeting the requirements of this guidance.

The Professional Certification Board of The IIA, upon request, may grant partial or complete exemption from reporting requirements for individuals when good cause exists, such as military service or individual hardship. Supporting documentation is required before a hardship case will be reviewed. Individuals requesting an exemption should log an incident in their CCMS record.

Each certified individual should submit to The IIA or their local Institute an appropriate CPE and/or CPD reporting form, without supporting documentation, in compliance with CPE/CPD requirements. Each certified individual should maintain a copy of the reporting form(s), along with all supporting documentation, for at least three years. Records must be made available to The IIA or its designee at The IIA's request. The records maintained by the individual in support of the reporting form filed with The IIA should include, as appropriate, the following information:

1. Title of program and/or description of content.
2. Dates attended.
3. Location of course or program.
4. Sponsoring organization.
5. Contact hours of credit as recommended by the course sponsor.
6. A letter, certificate, or other written independent attestation of course completion.
7. Documentation supporting publications, oral presentations, and committee or other participation.

Failure to submit the reporting form by the deadline will result in the automatic change in certification status from certified to inactive. The IIA will keep information on the active/inactive status of individuals.

CPE Reporting Statuses

Individuals will identify themselves as one of the below statuses when reporting annually. The number of hours required varies based on the certification held, and the status being reported.

Status	Definition	Use Certification / Designation?	Practice Internal Auditing?	Annual CIA Required Hours	Annual Specialty Certification (CCSA, CFSA, CGAP, CRMA, Internal Audit Practitioner)	Annual QIAL Required Hours
Practicing	Actively performing internal audit or related activities.	Yes	Yes	40	20	20
Non-Practicing	Not actively performing internal audit or related activities	Yes	No	20	10	10
Retired	No longer in the workforce	Yes	No	0	0	0

Inactive-(Grace Period) Status

Individuals that do not complete their reporting form on or before 31 December will automatically transition to an inactive-(grace period) status. Individuals who are moved into this status will receive notification of the status change either directly from CCMS or your local Institute. Individuals that hold this status may not use the designation.

To change a status from inactive-(grace period) back to a certified status requires the completion of the prior year reporting form(s) for each designation held with an inactive (grace period) status. Hours used for moving back to a certified status may NOT be used toward the current year reporting requirements.

Inactive Status

Individuals that remain in an inactive-(grace period) status for more than 12 months will automatically be transitioned to inactive status. Individuals who are moved into this status will receive notification of the status change either directly from CCMS or your local Institute. Individuals that hold this status may not use the designation.

To change a status from inactive back to a certified status requires the completion of a reinstatement reporting form for each designation held with an inactive status. Hours used for reinstatement may NOT be used toward the current year reporting requirements. Individuals will be required to pay a reinstatement fee of USD $100 or USD $250 (member / non-member).

Annual CPE / CPD Fee

CPE and CPD reporting fees vary according to membership status, designation(s) held, and location. For the most current information visit:

- North America – www.theiia.org/Certification
- Outside North America – www.globaliia.org/Certification

Attestation

All certificants will be required to attest to the following when completing the CPE reporting form:

- Performs internal audit services in accordance with the Standards;
- Agrees to abide by The IIA Code of Ethics;
- Agrees to not bring The IIA into disrepute;
- Confirms no criminal convictions since prior reporting period.

Application of Hours Earned

CPE/CPD hours earned can be applied across all IIA Global designations, with some exceptions.

- CCSA, CGAP, CRMA – 25% of the hours earned must be related to the specialty.
- CFSA – 100% of hours earned must be related to financial services*
Effective with the 2016 CPE reporting year. For the 2015 reporting year, the requirement is 25% of hours earned must be related to the specialty.*
- QIAL – Some CPD categories for QIAL do not apply to other IIA global certification programs.

Failure to Obtain Enough Hours

Individuals that do not obtain enough hours in the calendar year should not report CPE/CPD. Only once an individual has earned enough hours, should the reporting form(s) be completed. Individuals that do not earn enough hours in one calendar year may use hours from the next calendar year to make up the deficiency. However the hours earned in the next calendar year are not allowed to be counted toward the current year's reporting requirements.

Audit

Annually, The IIA (or its designee) will conduct an audit of reporting records. Individuals that are selected for the audit are required to provide evidence/documentation of CPE/CPD hours earned. Individuals that fail to provide information by the stated deadline will be automatically moved to inactive status and may no longer use their designation.

Individuals that do not complete the audit successfully will be granted a six month period to earn deficient CPE/CPD hours and provide documentation of hours earned to IIA Global.

Individuals that are found to falsify documentation or act in an unethical manner may be reported to the Global Ethics Committee for further review.

Qualifying CPE Activities for the CIA, Internal Audit Practitioner, CCSA, CFSA, CGAP, CRMA

It is anticipated that certificants will maintain the high standards of the profession in selecting quality educational programs to fulfill the CPE requirements. The following general criteria are to be satisfied in order for a continuing education program to be accepted:

1. The overriding consideration in determining whether a specific program is acceptable is that it shall be a formal program of learning which contributes directly to the professional competence of a certified individual.
2. Acceptable formal programs vary by program and are listed below:

CIA	Internal Audit Practitioner	CCSA	CFSA	CGAP	CRMA
Contribute to the professional competence of participants
State program objectives which specify the level of knowledge the participants should have attained, or the level of competence to be demonstrated upon completing the program
State education or experience prerequisites, if appropriate for the program
Be developed by individuals qualified in the subject matter and instructional design
Provide program content which is current
Be on a professional level and related to the CIA Common Body of Knowledge		Be on a professional level and related to the CCSA Topic Outline	Be on a professional level and related to the CFSA Topic Outline	Be on a professional level and related to the CGAP Topic Outline	Be on a professional level and related to the CRMA Topic Outline

The following general subjects are acceptable as long as they meet other CPE program criteria and topic outlines:

CIA	Internal Audit Practitioner	CCSA	CFSA	CGAP	CRMA
Auditing and accounting		CCSA Fundamentals	Financial services auditing: - Banking - Insurance - Securities	Standards and control/risk models	Assessing / assurance of risk management activities
Management and communication (oral and written)		CSA program integration		Government auditing practice	Risk management fundamentals
Computer science		Elements of the CSA process		Government auditing methodologies & skills	Elements of risk
Mathematics, statistics, and quantitative applications in business		Business objectives and organizational performance		Government auditing environment	Control theory and application
Economics		Risk identification and assessment			Business objectives and organizational performance
Business Law		Control theory and application
Specific business topics such as finance, production, marketing, and personnel
Specialized industry areas such as government, banking, utilities, or oil and gas

Activities other than those listed in this guidance may be deemed acceptable if the certificant can demonstrate that they contribute to professional competence. Substantiating that a particular activity qualifies as acceptable and meets the requirements is the responsibility of the certified individual.

CPE credit will be awarded for whole hours only with a minimum of 50 minutes constituting 1 hour. As an example, 100 minutes of continuous instruction would count for 2 hours; however, more than 50 minutes but less than 100 minutes of continuous instruction would count for only 1 hour. Only class contact or acceptable self-study hours are allowable. For continuous conferences and conventions when individual segments are less than 50 minutes, the sum of the segments should be considered one total program. For example, five 30-minute presentations would equal 150 minutes and should be counted as 3 contact hours.

Examination

Candidates will be awarded CPE hours for the year in which the certification is earned, and the subsequent year. Hours awarded are based on earning the certification, which are not NASBA sponsored.
